THE SECRET LIFE OF BEARS

Wed, April 6

Rae Wynn-Grant has dedicated her life to ecological research and conservation. As a scientist with National Geographic Society's Last Wild Places Initiative, she works to protect and restore iconic wildlife populations, including North American black and grizzly bears. But when the wild lands of their habitat are crisscrossed by roads, fences, and ranches, how can bears and humans coexist peacefully? Dr. Wynn-Grant intends to find the answer.

WILD SEAS, SECRET SHORES

Wed, May 4

For Thomas Peschak, sharks aren't a reason to get out of the water-they're a reason to get in. The National Geographic Explorer and photographer has paddled kayaks alongside great white sharks in South Africa, swam among hundreds of one-ton manta rays in the Maldives, and tracked sea turtles the size of bears in the Caribbean. Go on a breathtaking global ocean odyssey through his award-winning images and fascinating stories.

"Once upon a time, there was a little ogre named Shrek...." And thus begins the tale of an unlikely hero who finds himself on a life-changing journey alongside a wisecracking Donkey and a feisty princess who resists her own rescue. Throw in a short-tempered bad guy, a cookie with an attitude and over a dozen other fairy tale misfits, and you've got the kind of mess that calls for a real hero. Luckily, there's one on hand... and his name is Shrek. Based on the Oscar-winning, smash-hit DreamWorks Animation film, the Tony® Award-winning fairytale adventure Shrek the Musical brings all the beloved characters you know from the film to life on stage and proves there's more to the story than meets the ears. This is a Theatre for Young Audiences production. For more information, visit

Fort Worth Food & Wine Festival

Mar 31 – Apr 3 at various locations

The Fort Worth Food + Wine Festival is North Texas' most celebrated cuisine and beverage festival, taking place over four days and nights in venues around their thriving culinary community.

The festival's growing roster of talented chefs and food artisans, as well as craft brewers and distinctive vintners, bring a range of tastes, styles and methods that reflect the diversity of the city itself. They also offer events leading up to the festival, including Shooting with the Chefs and Reserve Wine Tasting. But it's more than good food and good fun – it's a good cause.

That's because proceeds from the festival go to the Fort Worth Food + Wine Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that raises funds for local grant programs and culinary scholarships. To date, the Foundation raised more than $200,000 for grants and scholarships supporting deserving culinary students from Fort Worth. With your continued support, they can keep this program going strong in the years to come. # 10th Annual Big Texas Beer Fest

Mar 31 – Apr 3 at various locations

The Big Texas Beer Fest is Dallas' original beer festival. This was the first, dedicated craft beer festival, and still one of the best in the state of Texas. Big Texas Beer Fest takes place at the Fair Park Automobile Building and will be featuring 100+ breweries and 500+ beers, ciders, hard seltzers, hard kombucha, meads, and more. BTBF is well-known as the festival to go to for exclusive and rare beers, one-offs, and special beers you can't find on store shelves. Since brewers never know when beers will be ready, the beer list is always released about 1 week before the event. Grab your tickets now, as they have always sold out in advance.
