Sundance Square Night Market First Saturday of each month | 5pm-10pm Fort Worth, TX

Spend a summer evening exploring one of Fort Worth's most vibrant downtown destinations at the Sundance Square Night Market. Held on the first Saturday of each month, this lively open-air event transforms Sundance Square Plaza into a bustling marketplace filled with local artisans, handcrafted goods, delicious food, live entertainment, and plenty of community spirit.

Visitors can browse more than 70 curated vendors offering everything from handmade jewelry and artwork to home decor, boutique clothing, candles, and specialty gifts. Food trucks and local eateries serve up tasty bites while live music keeps the atmosphere festive throughout the evening. Guests can take part in complimentary salsa dance lessons before the bands begin, then enjoy a short fireworks show that brings the evening to a celebratory close. For more details, visit

Bunnies, Birds & Butterflies Through September 30, 2026 Dallas, TX

Experience a breathtaking blend of art and nature this season at the Dallas Arboretum with Hunt Slonem: Bunnies, Birds & Butterflies. On display through September 30, this extraordinary outdoor exhibition transforms the award-winning gardens into an open-air gallery featuring 37 larger-than-life installations and more than 100 colorful works by internationally acclaimed neo-expressionist artist Hunt Slonem. Included with regular garden admission, the exhibit invites guests to discover vibrant rabbits, soaring birds, and whimsical butterflies nestled among the Arboretum's spectacular seasonal blooms.

As you stroll through winding garden paths, each turn reveals playful sculptures and striking artistic displays that celebrate the beauty of the natural world. The exhibition also extends indoors to the Historic Camp House, where visitors can explore a curated collection of Slonem's paintings and additional works.

Consider attending one of the Arboretum's Twilight Nights, when the gardens remain open into the evening and the colorful sculptures take on a whole new life beneath the setting sun. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit <https://www.dallasarboretum.org/hunt-slonem-bunnies-birds-butterflies/>.

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus Fort Worth, TX – Aug. 21-23 Dallas, TX – Aug. 28-30

Get ready to witness the impossible! Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey® Presents: The Greatest Show On Earth® is bringing its all-new, high-energy production to Fort Worth's Dickies Arena August 21-23 and Dallas' American Airlines Center August 28-30, 2026. This reimagined spectacle delivers nonstop excitement with breathtaking acrobatics, gravity-defying stunts, aerial artistry, comedy, music, and larger-than-life performances that will leave audiences of all ages amazed.

Gone are the days of the traditional circus—today's Ringling experience is a fast-paced, immersive production featuring performers from around the world, dazzling special effects, and interactive moments that bring fans closer to the action than ever before. Be sure to arrive early for the complimentary Ringling Hype Crew pre-show, where music, dancing, games, and audience participation kick off the excitement before the main event begins. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit <https://www.ringling.com/>.

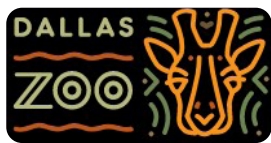

Phenomenomaly Though August 9, 2026 Grapevine, TX

Step inside The Real Unreal at Meow Wolf Grapevine, where the immersive exhibition becomes even more magical during Phenomenomaly, a limited-time interactive performance event running through August 9. Included with regular admission, this unforgettable experience blends live theater, art, music, and storytelling into a cosmic adventure unlike anything else in North Texas.

As you wander through Meow Wolf's mind-bending worlds, mysterious characters, towering puppets, glowing creatures, and surprise performances appear around every corner. Rather than watching a traditional show, guests become part of the story, discovering new moments and unexpected encounters throughout the exhibit. No two visits are ever the same, making each experience uniquely your own.

Adding even more excitement, local North Texas performers take center stage each week, showcasing everything from dance and circus arts to music and cultural performances. Visitors can also enjoy limited-edition merchandise and themed beverages created exclusively for the event. For more information, visit <https://tickets.meowwolf.com/events/grapevine/phenomenomaly/>. Back-to-school shopping just got a little more affordable! The Comptroller encourages all taxpayers to support Texas businesses while saving money on tax-free purchases of most clothing, footwear, school supplies and backpacks (sold for less than $100) during the annual Tax-Free weekend. Qualifying items can be purchased tax free from a Texas store or from an online or catalog seller doing business in Texas. In most cases, you do not need to give the seller an exemption certificate to buy qualifying items tax free.

A full list of qualifying items (and taxable ones) can be found at <https://comptroller.texas.gov/taxes/publications/98-490>

Food lovers, this is the event you've been waiting for! DFW Restaurant Week 2026 returns for its milestone 30th anniversary, giving diners the perfect excuse to explore some of the Metroplex's most celebrated restaurants while supporting two incredible local charities. From August 10 through September 7, participating restaurants across Dallas, Fort Worth, Plano, Frisco, Southlake, Grapevine, and surrounding communities will offer specially priced prix-fixe menus featuring exceptional cuisine at outstanding values. Select restaurants will even kick off the festivities during Preview Weekend, August 6–9, giving eager diners an early taste of the celebration.

Whether you've been wanting to experience an award-winning steakhouse, indulge in handcrafted Italian cuisine, savor fresh seafood, or discover a new neighborhood favorite, DFW Restaurant Week makes fine dining more accessible than ever. Guests can enjoy thoughtfully curated two-course lunches and weekend brunches for $29, three-course dinners for $49 or $59, and select Signature Experience dinners for $99, with approximately 20% of every meal benefiting charity. It's an opportunity to enjoy an unforgettable meal while giving back to the North Texas community.

Each year, hundreds of restaurants participate, offering exclusive menus created specifically for Restaurant Week. From elegant date nights and business lunches to celebrations with family and friends, there are dining experiences to fit every occasion and every palate. Many restaurants feature signature dishes alongside seasonal specialties, allowing guests to sample multiple courses that would normally cost significantly more.

Even better, every reservation helps support two organizations making a meaningful difference throughout North Texas. Proceeds from Dallas-area restaurants benefit the North Texas Food Bank, while participating Tarrant County restaurants support Lena Pope, an organization dedicated to helping children and families thrive. Since its inception, DFW Restaurant Week has raised millions of dollars for these important community partners while shining a spotlight on the region's outstanding culinary talent. Planning ahead is highly recommended, as many of the area's most popular restaurants fill their reservation books quickly. Reservation Day has officially opened, allowing diners to browse participating restaurants, view menus, and secure their preferred dining times. Whether you're returning to an old favorite or checking a bucket-list restaurant off your list, early reservations offer the best selection of dates and times. For more information and a list of participating restaurants, visit

<https://www.dfwrestaurantweek.com>

When August brings the sweltering heat, nothing beats escaping to the movies. Swap the blazing sun for the cool comfort of air conditioning, a bucket of buttery popcorn, and the thrill of the big screen. September 8-20, 2026
Music Hall at Fair Park
Dallas, TX

One of the most adored musicals of all time is set to grace the stage as The Sound of Music arrives at Broadway Dallas for a limited engagement, bringing its timeless story, iconic songs, and stunning mountain scenery to life for audiences across the metroplex.

Set against the backdrop of 1930s Austria, The Sound of Music follows the inspiring journey of Maria, a spirited young woman who becomes governess to the seven children of the widowed Captain von Trapp. What begins as a strict household soon transforms through music, laughter, and love—ultimately becoming a powerful story of courage and hope during a time of uncertainty.

Audiences can look forward to hearing iconic songs including “Do-Re-Mi,” “My Favorite Things,” “Edelweiss,” and “Climb Ev’ry Mountain,” each performed with fresh energy while honoring the classic Rodgers & Hammerstein legacy that has made the production a global favorite for generations.

This Broadway Dallas presentation promises a full-scale touring production experience, complete with stunning sets, rich orchestration, and a cast of acclaimed performers bringing depth and heart to these well-known characters.

Tickets are expected to be in high demand, and patrons are encouraged to check availability early through your concierge for best seating options.
