Guests can enjoy a performance by Alpha Midway Dance Group before Lara Latin, a DFW-based band, takes the stage with salsa, merengue, cumbia, and bachata. The Latinidad Mercado will also feature Latin-owned businesses and artisanal goods, while local food vendors serve a variety of authentic Latin American dishes.

Admission is FREE with RSVP at Strauss Square, 2389 Flora Street, Dallas. For more details, visit <https://attpac.org/event/latinidad>

October 1 - November 1, 2026 North Richland Hills, TX

Halloween is getting a little more playful at Peppa Pig Theme Park with the park's first-ever Halloween celebration, bringing festive fun designed especially for toddlers and preschoolers, without the spooky scares.

Families can meet Peppa and George dressed in Halloween costumes, explore a kid-sized hay maze and pumpkin patch, and enjoy a special Halloween-themed live show. Little ones can also watch Halloween episodes of Peppa Pig, join Peppa's Pop Stars for a costume parade, and discover seasonal decorations and treats throughout the park.

On October 31st, the celebration gets even sweeter with trick-or-treating at five stations around the park, plus special giveaways. Halloween activities are included with regular park admission, making it an easy way for little ones to celebrate the season with their favorite piggy.

Located in North Richland Hills, Peppa Pig Theme Park offers rides, play areas, character experiences, and plenty of family fun, all with a Halloween twist during this special seasonal event. For more information, visit <https://www.peppapigthemepark.com>

MUSIC ON MAIN First Four Fridays in October Irving, TX

This October, Heritage Park in Irving comes alive on the first four Fridays with Music on Main, offering live music, dancing, and community fun. Concerts kick off at 7 p.m., inviting guests to bring lawn chairs or blankets, enjoy dinner from local spots or on-site food vendors, and relax under the stars for an evening of great entertainment.

The performer lineup offers an exciting mix of musical styles:

10/2 – The Wanda King Big Blues Band Revue:

Enjoy classic pop, R&B, blues, and jazz favorites. Wanda King, daughter of blues legend Freddie King, continues her family's musical legacy with a dynamic live performance.

10/9 – Tony Pierce: Country and Western favorites take the stage with guitarist Tony Pierce, who was selected by country music legend Vince Gill as a "Top Emerging Guitarist."

10/16 – The David Whiteman Band: Dance along to a high-energy mix of R&B, hip hop, funk, rock, pop, and familiar crowd favorites.

10/23 – Latin Express: Wrap up the series with an energetic blend of Latin, rock, and Tejano music from the Tejano Roots Hall of Fame inductees.

With FREE admission, live music, food, and plenty of room to dance, Music on Main offers an easy way to enjoy crisp fall evenings in the heart of Irving. For more information, visit <https://irvingtx.gov/music-on-main-concert-series>

TRICK OR TREAT IN THE PARK October 24 | 5pm-9pm Dallas, TX

Halloween takes over Klyde Warren Park with an evening full of candy, costumes, and family fun at the park's annual Trick-or-Treating in the Park celebration. Little ghosts, superheroes, princesses, and furry friends are invited to dress up and enjoy a free Halloween party in the heart of Dallas.

The evening features plenty of opportunities to fill those candy bags, along with costume contests, games, and family activities throughout the park. Last year's celebration attracted more than 20,000 visitors, so this is one Halloween gathering that promises plenty of energy and excitement.

Once the candy collecting winds down, settle onto the lawn for a free nighttime showing of Toy Story 5 as part of Movies in the Park. It's the perfect way to end an evening of Halloween fun—with costumes, candy, and a little movie magic under the Dallas skyline.

Admission is FREE, making this a festive way for families to celebrate Halloween without breaking the candy budget! For more information, visit <https://www.klydewarrenpark.org/trick-or-treating-in-the-park>

Though November 1, 2026

Arlington, TX

Things get seriously spooky at Six Flags Over Texas as Fright Fest presented by SNICKERS® takes over the park on select nights now through

November 1. By day, guests can enjoy the park's rides and attractions, but after dark, the screams begin with haunted mazes, sinister scare zones, live entertainment and Halloween-themed food and drinks.

For those brave enough to enter the haunted attractions, the 2026 lineup includes The Conjuring Universe, where cursed artifacts, Annabelle and the infamous Perron farmhouse await; The Strangers: No Escape, featuring masked killers inspired by The Strangers films; SAW: Legacy of Terror, where guests must navigate Jigsaw-inspired traps and twisted challenges; EverSmile Industries presented by M&M'S®, a creepy retro-futuristic factory where perfection comes at a price; and Terror at the Polynesian Palm presented by SKITTLES®, an abandoned hotel filled with island-inspired horrors and enhanced scares. A Haunted Attractions Pass is required for these experiences.

A new Doc Varnum's Hybrid Hell Pit adds even more mayhem with a backwoods sideshow atmosphere, strange hybrid creatures and swampy fog. This premium scare-zone experience combines live entertainment, immersive horror and themed offerings.

Outside the mazes, six outdoor scare zones turn the park into a nightmare after dark. Along with the new Día de los Muertos zone, returning areas include Outlaw's Revenge, Forsaken Fairgrounds, The Last Harvest and The Plague. Guests can also catch the new interactive musical mystery Wake the Dead, where the audience helps determine the outcome of a family murder investigation. Returning entertainment includes The Awakening and The Spectral Sisters.

Halloween-themed food and beverages round out the night, including specialty cocktails, mocktails and returning blood-bag beverages. With thrilling rides, creepy characters, haunted attractions and live shows filling the park after dark, Fright Fest offers plenty of ways to celebrate the Halloween season...if you dare! For more information, visit <https://www.sixflags.com/overtexas>
