Kids Fest

November 9 | 1pm-4pm

Fort Worth, TX

Families across North Texas can look forward to a day of discovery and fun when KERA Kids Fest returns to Trinity Park! This FREE community event brings together families, educators, and local organizations for an afternoon designed to spark creativity and curiosity in children. The festival features engaging STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Math) activities, live entertainment, and story times that encourage learning through play.

Young attendees will also have the opportunity to meet beloved PBS KIDS characters, including Nature Cat and Xavier Riddle, while parents can connect with local partners offering educational resources and family programs available year-round. With hands-on exhibits, performances, and a welcoming outdoor setting, KERA Kids Fest continues its mission to inspire lifelong learning and strengthen community connections across the region.

Donations for United Community Centers will be collected during the event to support their Thanksgiving Food Drive. Community members are encouraged to contribute nonperishable items to help local families enjoy a warm holiday meal. Every donation, big or small, helps make a difference in ensuring local families have what they need this Thanksgiving season. For more information, visit <https://www.kera.org/kidsfest/>.

Texas Christkindl Market

Nov. 21-23 & Nov. 28-Dec. 23

Arlington, TX

The holiday season in North Texas wouldn't be complete without a visit to the Texas Christkindl Market, returning to the North Plaza at Globe Life Field. Inspired by cherished German holiday traditions, the market welcomes guests daily from 11am to 8 pm.

Now in its 14th year, the market captures the warmth and wonder of a classic European Christmas village. Visitors can stroll through rows of festively decorated wooden booths offering handcrafted gifts, ornaments, and artisan goods—many imported directly from Germany. The air is filled with the scent of roasted nuts, bratwurst, and mulled wine, creating an authentic Old-World experience right in the heart of Arlington.

Live entertainment, music, and family activities make the event a joyful outing for all ages. Children can delight in holiday performances and festive lights, while shoppers discover unique presents and seasonal decor.

With its charming atmosphere and community spirit, the Texas Christkindl Market has become one of North Texas's most beloved seasonal traditions—perfect for families, couples, and anyone seeking a dose of holiday cheer! Admission is free. For more details, visit <https://txchristkindlmarket.com/>.

Parade of Lights

November 23 | 6pm

Fort Worth, TX

Downtown will shine bright for the holidays as the GM Financial Parade of Lights returns for its 43rd annual celebration. This Fort Worth favorite will bring more than 100 glittering floats, marching bands, twinkling dancers, and festive performers to the heart of the city. The evening ends with a grand arrival from Santa and Mrs. Claus, waving to the crowd from their glowing sleigh.

This year's theme, "Sparkle, Dazzle, Shine!", is a perfect match for the vibrant mix of lights, music, and cheer that fills every corner of downtown. Families are encouraged to arrive early—streets close by 4pm and reserved "Street Seats" along the route often sell out fast! The parade begins at Weatherford and Throckmorton Streets and winds through downtown before ending near 3rd Street. Parking can be tricky, so organizers suggest riding Trinity Metro and using the GoPass app for discounted fares. Event is FREE to attend, but reserve seating must be purchased in advance. For more information and route details, visit <https://fortworthparadeoflights.org/>.

Classic Christmas

Nov. 21-Dec.28, 2025

Dallas, TX

Step into a winter wonderland this holiday season as Classic Christmas returns to Dallas Midtown (formerly Valley View Mall). The beloved holiday attraction transforms more than 90,000 square feet into a dazzling festive experience filled with twinkling lights, family fun, and cheerful memories waiting to be made.

Guests can enjoy a variety of interactive activities, including outdoor ice skating, a Slip 'N Slide Summit with tubing lanes for all ages, and themed nights such as Country Christmas, Paws & Claus, and Friendsgiving. The event also features live music, holiday treats, and plenty of photo opportunities among millions of sparkling lights.

Perfect for families, friends, or festive date nights, Classic Christmas captures the spirit of the season with its blend of light displays, live entertainment, and cozy holiday vibes. Visitors are encouraged to purchase tickets early, as weekend and theme-night sessions tend to sell out quickly.

Classic Christmas at Dallas Midtown is located at LBJ Freeway and Montfort Drive in Dallas. Bundle up, bring your camera, and get ready to experience one of North Texas's most magical holiday traditions! For more details or to purchase tickets, visit <https://classicchristmas.com/dallas/>

Dallas Kindness Festival

Dallas Veterans Day Parade

November 11 | 11am

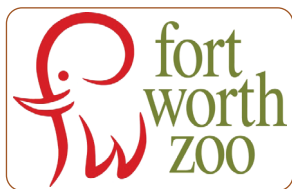

Downtown Dallas, TX

The city of Dallas will come together to honor America's heroes at the 2025 Greater Dallas Veterans Day Parade, held at Fair Park. The day begins with the traditional 11th Hour Ceremony featuring a wreath-laying, the playing of Taps, and a special Oath of Enlistment for new recruits.

This year's theme, "75 Years of the Korean War," pays tribute to the brave men and women who served in what's often called "the Forgotten War." The parade will follow the ceremony, winding through Fair Park with floats, marching bands, and veteran organizations proudly representing all branches of service.

Attendees can enjoy displays of military vehicles, a Massing of the Colors by local JROTC units, and community groups showing their support. Guests are encouraged to arrive early, bring small flags, and take a moment to thank a veteran. For details on parking, parade routes, or volunteer opportunities, visit <https://www.dallasmoww.org/2025-dallas-veterans-day-parade/>

Exciting news from the Fort Worth Zoo — a precious new addition has arrived! The Zoo recently welcomed Lady Bird, a 250-pound female baby Asian elephant born on August 18th, to proud mom Bluebonnet. This marks another incredible milestone for the Zoo's world-renowned Asian elephant breeding program, which plays a vital role in protecting this endangered species.

Lady Bird, named after the former First Lady and Texas native Lady Bird Johnson, is already capturing hearts with her playful spirit and gentle curiosity. Guests can often spot her staying close to her mom, splashing in the water, or exploring her new surroundings in the elephant habitat.

The Fort Worth Zoo invites visitors to come meet Lady Bird and learn more about how the Zoo supports elephant conservation through its Asian Elephant Breeding and Conservation Program.

November 8 | 11am-10pm
Carrollton, TX

Downtown Carrollton lights up with the 15th annual Festival at the Switchyard, a FREE community event that brings live music, food, fun, and local flavor.

The festival honors Carrollton's historic railroad roots with a day full of free entertainment, including concerts, rides, games, and activities for all ages. Visitors can explore rows of local food and craft vendors, enjoy interactive art and games, and experience the community spirit that makes this event a North Texas favorite.

This year's music lineup is one of the most exciting yet; bringing together a powerhouse mix of rock, pop, and nostalgia! Get ready to sing along with Rick Springfield, whose timeless hits like "Jessie's Girl" still light up the crowd and jam out to the infectious energy of Spin Doctors with their chart-toppers "Two Princes" and "Little Miss Can't Be Wrong." Enjoy the dreamy melodies of Sixpence None the Richer, best known for "Kiss Me," and rock out with Alien Ant Farm, who'll bring their signature edge and fan-favorite cover of "Smooth Criminal." It's a lineup that promises a full day of music, memories, and nonstop fun for festivalgoers of all ages.

Parking will be extremely limited, so hop aboard the brand-new DART Silver Line for free on November 8 and ride straight to the festival. You can also park and catch the DART Green Line to the Downtown Carrollton Station (regular fares apply). For those needing accessible parking, spots will be available at 1000 W. Belt Line Road, just east of the festival grounds, as well as at all DART stations.
