Cowtown Cookoff & Music Festival February 20-21, 2026 Fort Worth, TX

The Cowtown Cook-Off & Music Festival returns to Fort Worth, bringing two days of mouthwatering barbecue, live music and community fun to Panther Island Pavilion. This beloved local event is back and better than ever after its return from a multi-year hiatus.

Attendees can enjoy a wide variety of barbecue styles as competitive cook teams fire up their pits and serve crowd-pleasing favorites. From slow-smoked classics to bold, creative flavors, the Cook-Off promises something for every BBQ lover.

Live music will set the tone throughout the weekend, featuring regional performers who will keep the energy high from afternoon into the evening. Guests can relax by the waterfront, enjoy the performances, and soak in the lively Fort Worth atmosphere.

The festival is family-friendly and includes activities for all ages, along with local vendors and community engagement opportunities. Best of all, proceeds from the event benefit Fort Worth Cops for Kids, supporting programs that strengthen relationships between local law enforcement and youth through mentorship and outreach. ## Harry Potter: The Exhibition Through April 12, 2026 Addison, TX

Due to overwhelming demand, Harry Potter: The Exhibition has extended its run at Pepper Square, giving fans even more time to explore this immersive experience!

The interactive exhibition brings the beloved stories to life through authentic props, costumes, and beautifully recreated environments from the Harry Potter films, Fantastic Beasts, and Harry Potter and the Cursed Child. Visitors can explore iconic spaces like the Great Hall, try their hand at spellcasting, test their Quidditch skills, and even brew potions, all while earning points for their Hogwarts house along the way.

Designed for fans of all ages, the exhibition blends storytelling, technology, and hands-on experiences, making it just as magical for first-time visitors as it is for lifelong Potterheads. With this extension, additional After-Hours events will also be offered to guests 18+. Admission will include a complimentary beverage - a specialty cocktail, beer, or wine (with proper 21+ ID), mocktail or soda and snack before exploring the exhibition after dark. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit <https://dallas.harrypotterexhibition.com/>.

Great Backyard Bird Count February 14 | 10am-2pm Arlington, TX

Celebrate Valentine's Day with nature at the Great Backyard Bird Count at the River Legacy Nature Center in Arlington. This fun, family-friendly event invites participants of all ages to step outdoors and take part in a worldwide citizen-science effort that helps scientists track bird populations and migration patterns across the globe.

Participants will head out onto River Legacy's trails to observe and identify local bird species, with naturalists on hand to share insights and lead guided walks. The event is welcoming to all skill levels, whether you're an experienced "birder" or simply curious about the wildlife around you. Every observation made during the event contributes valuable data used by scientists and conservation organizations around the world.

Free and open to all ages, the GBBC offers a meaningful way to enjoy the outdoors while supporting conservation efforts, connecting with nature and helping protect the birds that share our environment. For further information, visit <https://riverlegacy.org/event/backyard-bird-count>.

4th Annual FW Music Festival & Conference February 26-March 1, 2026 Fort Worth, TX

The Fort Worth Music Festival & Conference will take place in multiple venues in the Fort Worth Stockyards, featuring panel discussions and keynote speakers with well-established and highly respected live music industry executives, networking opportunities, workshops, and live performances. Produced by Live Nation, in partnership with Chef Tim Love and Larry Joe Taylor, the Fort Worth Music Festival & Conference aims to generate awareness surrounding the Texas music scene while working to build an infrastructure where artists can establish and grow their career in Texas and beyond. The conference will unite music enthusiasts and provide rising artists with an overview on how to enter and establish themselves within the live music industry, while the festival will serve as a live showcase for up-and-coming talent. For more information, a list of musical artists and to purchase tickets please visit <https://www.fortworthmusicfestival.com/>.

So much happened before Dorothy dropped in.

WICKED, the Broadway sensation, looks at what happened in the Land of Oz...but from a different angle. Long before Dorothy arrives, there is another young woman, born with emerald-green skin—smart, fiery, misunderstood, and possessing an extraordinary talent. When she meets a bubbly blonde who is exceptionally popular, their initial rivalry turns into the unlikeliest of friendships... until the world decides to call one “good,” and the other one “wicked.”

From the first electrifying note to the final breathtaking moment, Wicked- the untold true story of the Witches of Oz, transfixes audiences with its wildly inventive story. “If every musical had the brains, heart and courage of Wicked, Broadway really would be a magical place” (Time Magazine). Run Time: 2 hours, 45 minutes with one intermission. Be sure to purchase your ticket early- shows often sell out as the performance date approaches. For more information, visit: <https://broadwaydallas.org/> Contact your concierge to get services fees waived on ticket orders!
